FOR SANITARY BUILDING

REGULATIONS TO APPLY IN THE FUTURE.

All Structures Must be Approved by Board of Health—Merchants Would Ship Goods.

A very long and important meeting of the Board of Health was held yesterday afternoon.

The first business was consideration of the report of the Merchants' committee, requesting that numerous articles of merchandise coming from clean districts be allowed to go to the other islands. It was remarked that there would be no harm in shipping merchandise from stores outside of quarantine.
 The Board of Health called attention to the fact that there was no unquar-antined section of Honolulu; that the whole city had been placed in quarantine. The report was referred to the Planners' Association for its ideas.

The sanitary committee of the Board submitted a long report in regard to the construction of buildings, the recommendations embodied in which were taken from the report of the sanitary commission of two weeks ago. By the adoption of this report all future buildings put up must be on specially prescribed lines, in addition to those laid down by the Superintendent of Public Works.

The question of providing for the people released from quarantine came up and was discussed independently of the proceedings in Cabinet. In connection with the matter came an offer from John F. Colburn of a tract containing about forty acres, situated in Kailahi, for one year without charge.
 The land belongs to the Kapiolani Estate.

A communication from H. P. Baldwin was reported in which that gentleman said that Maui did not want any merchandise from Honolulu except such articles as the island could not get along without.

Dr. Davis was granted a license to practice medicine in the islands.

ADMIXTURE OF LINES.

There has been an interminable and perhaps irremediable mixture of clothing taken from wash houses in the infected district to be delivered to parties in town. The trouble seems to have been in the fact that the Chinese laundrymen did not know the names of half of their white customers. Private families have been supplied with the laundry of boarding houses and vice versa; old bachelors have found the most preposterous pieces of lingerie in their packages from the wash John and others have received garments that they know not of and need not at all.

NEW WIZARD OF FINANCE

DULL STOCK MARKET PROVOKES
 DISCUSSION.

But the Discussion Tends to Show That Stocks Are Suffering Only in Sympathy With Other Business.

"We'll have to replace H. P. Dillingham with Col. John H. Soper as the Honolulu wizard of finance," said one in the group of brokers who were alternating their observations of the stream of would be Australia passengers going to and from the Consul-General's office, with discussions of the stock market.
 "Why?" asked the others in chorus.

"Because of his settlement of the Wailua stock deal," replied the first speaker. "Just look at the situation," he continued. "Dillingham paid Soper $55,000 in cold cash and spent several days or weeks of hard work and worry carrying through the plan of an additional issue of $1,000,000 of stock. Now what is the situation? Wailua assessable, 60 per cent paid is quoted 50 bid and 57 1/2 asked. At those figures he could have gone on the market and bought the million dollars of stock the court required him to produce, for $575,- 000, which he had sold at the par value of the assessments, or better and so have cleared up the difference, don't you see, instead of being out the cool $85,000 he paid Soper."

"On the other hand, Soper took $55,- 000 which is still at par, surrendering claims to stock which fluctuates and which is now fluctuating the wrong way. Therefore, am I not right gentlemen in declaring Soper and not Dillingham the real wizard of finance?"

"You're right," said the oldest broker in the crowd. "You're as right as Col.
 Sellers or any of these other fellows who figure out colossal schemes on paper. But if you go to handling your money on that basis you'll end up where Joe Leiter did. Not but what Col. Soper showed good sense in settling the controversy instead of letting the litigation go on to the detriment of the plantation. But if anyone undertook to buy a million dollars worth of Wailua he'd have to pay a good deal more than $575,- 000 for it. Stocks have felt the general effect of the plague on business. But if you'll notice even the market quotations don't show any great falling off in dividend paying and what may be called investment stock and bonds, and good properties will recover as soon as normal conditions return."

SENATOR MORGAN.

Gov. Johnson of Alabama Wants His Senatorial Seat.

WASHINGTON, December 27.—The contest between Senator Morgan and Gov. Joseph S. Johnson of Alabama, who is seeking the seat of the former in the senate, is becoming quite acute, and has reached the stage where formal letters demanding explanations are in order. Mr. Morgan made a speech the other day about trusts, and Gov.
 Johnson, who belongs to a firm of iron manufacturers at Birmingham, took offense at what he considered a personal allusion. The exact words were these:
 "It is a monstrous monopoly that had to leave Alabama and find a home and shelter in New Jersey, and a large corporation in which the governor of Alabama has or had a large amount of stock leads the process."

The governor of Alabama demands that Senator Morgan retract the above statement or "withdraw from the shelter of the senate" and repeat it at some place where he can get at him.
 Whatever the facts in question may be it is perfectly safe to say that although Senator Morgan is 77 years old he will not permit even the governor to play "horse" with him.
 There was a report about the capital today that Gen. Joe Wheeler had captured Aguinaldo, and if it ever turns out to be true, both Senator Morgan, with all his learning and ability, and the profound confidence that is felt in him by his colleagues of both parties, and Gov. Johnson, will have to look for other jobs. "Fighting Joe" will be the next senator from Alabama.

NOT HER FAULT.

"Is this the cracked wheat, Jane?"
 "I dun' know, mum; I ain't looked at it or touched it, an' if it's cracked it wuz cracked afore I come here."
